

We do not want banks or any other institutions to be exempt from following the No Call List regulations.